How To Hold an Event

- Contact BDM to see if they will present the trip through power point, or video. You will need your BDM at the event to answer any questions if you have not been to the destination
- Partner with local business, park district or library to promote specific trip
- Contact library, theater, coffee shop (after hours), or your office as a place to hold your event
- Send out email or post cards from your data base announcing the event. Advertise as free admission, bring a friend. RSVP for your complimentary reservation (so people know the event is free)
- Create the event around the destination theme....decorate tables, napkins, food and drink
- Order plenty of brochures/flyers pertaining to the trip
- Keep in contact with your group. Send a short email once a month on general information or highlights of the trip to keep clients excited
- Remember to keep the event simple. You do not have to spend a lot of money
- Ask BDM for co-op
